

My family is finally enjoying quiet evenings without having to deal with the annoying calls from telemarketers. The Federal law is not stringent enough and telemarketers kept calling even though we are on the Federal "Do Not Call List". The New Jersey's 'Do Not Call' law is working and the calls from telemarketers dropped to almost zero. Please do not take that away from us. Thanks